Local Golfer Wins Chance at Important Witnesses Absent. English Champion by Beating Hunter To-Day.

RYE, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The feature of the afternoon play in the National Amale in 5 to par 4. Hunter was short on schedule. rimmed and lost the hole, 6 to 5 against Hunter got down a wonderful 35-foot feet by three inches. Is was a heart-on the Garden. Mr. Powers replied, ac-lereaker. Travers I up. Travers sliced cording to the report, that the Madison was a foot further away and missed his putt by an inch, while Travers was not a genuine lease for one year in a foot off, so it was a half in 4.

Travers warily played his second short on the 14th, but Hunter carried the brook with a wooden club and slicing, however. Travers's approach went across the green. Travers's pitch was ten feet short, and his put an inch shy, so it was Hunter's hole par 5 to 5. That squared the match and the gallery soon doubled. Travers was on the green in doubled. Stickney of St. Louis held Herreshoff, former metropolitan champion, better than was expected, his total being 79, only one stroke more than Herreshoff.
Rowers putted poorly against Whittemore, and took 50 to his opponent's 75.
Martin and Insiee had it nip and tuch throughout. Brown, the Scotch entry, continued to drive ineffectively, but his putling was exceptionally good. This latter circumstance saved him from being worse than 86. Kirkby, his opponent, had 78.

F. A. Martin, Manchester, Vt., ended the first round two up on C. W. Insiee.

Hilton fairly ran away from Watson, the latter winning but one hole. Hil-ton got a 73, equalling the eard yester-day of Paul Hunter, Chicago, which was the lowest previously made. Hil-ton was out in 38 and back in 35. Hilton's showing:

defeat of Hunter by Travers. Hunter, gation into the affairs of the Madison after acoring a low mark yesterday, suffered a slump this afternoon when Travers beat him handly at 3 up and 1 to go at 36.

Travers surprised the large gallery with his brilliant playing. Hunter lost on his putting, for he outdrove Travers at most everything.

Deared before that bod yin its investigation of all Hilton dreaded, had been swept out of the running, and he himself had fallen in the top half of the bracketing, which is far and away the easiest.

Down to the final at least, so far as indications on paper could go, Hilton has but one hard battle in prospect, and that to-morrow, giving him between each a day of comparatively easy going. In the lower half Fred Herreshoff, Os-
